

DRAW YOUR COMMUNITY

In We Are Immigrants, author Carolina Fernandez takes young readers through the rich tapestry of immigrants with her joyful language and Alyssa M. Gonzalez's lively illustrations. This book encourages kids to recognize the ways that immigrants enrich our world and celebrate the vibrant diversity and unstoppable spirit of immigrants.

Use this worksheet to draw the people around you.

Directions:

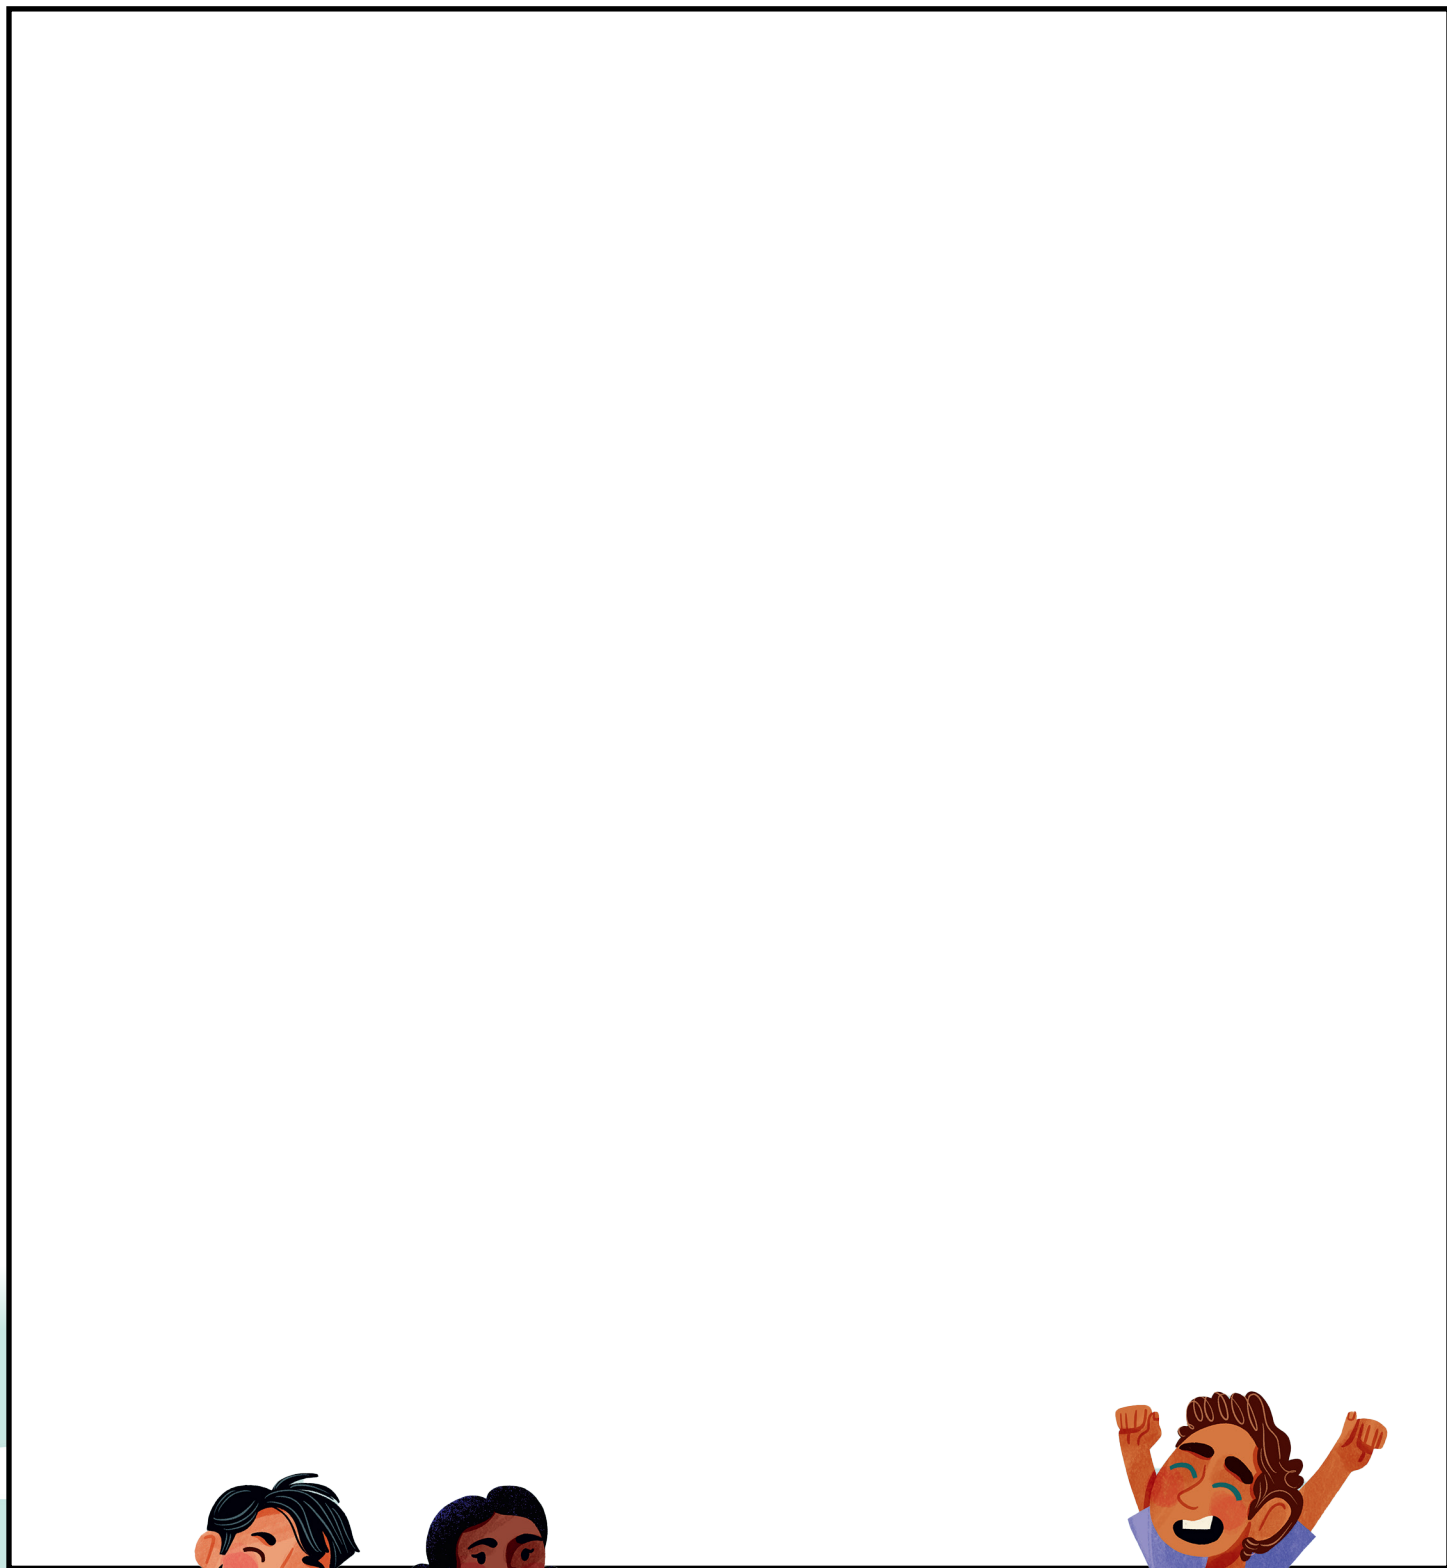

1. Print out the following page.
2. Prepare coloring utensils: crayons, markers, colored pencils, etc.
3. In each space, draw the people in your life who make up your community.
4. Appreciate the range of colors, backgrounds, and identities around you!

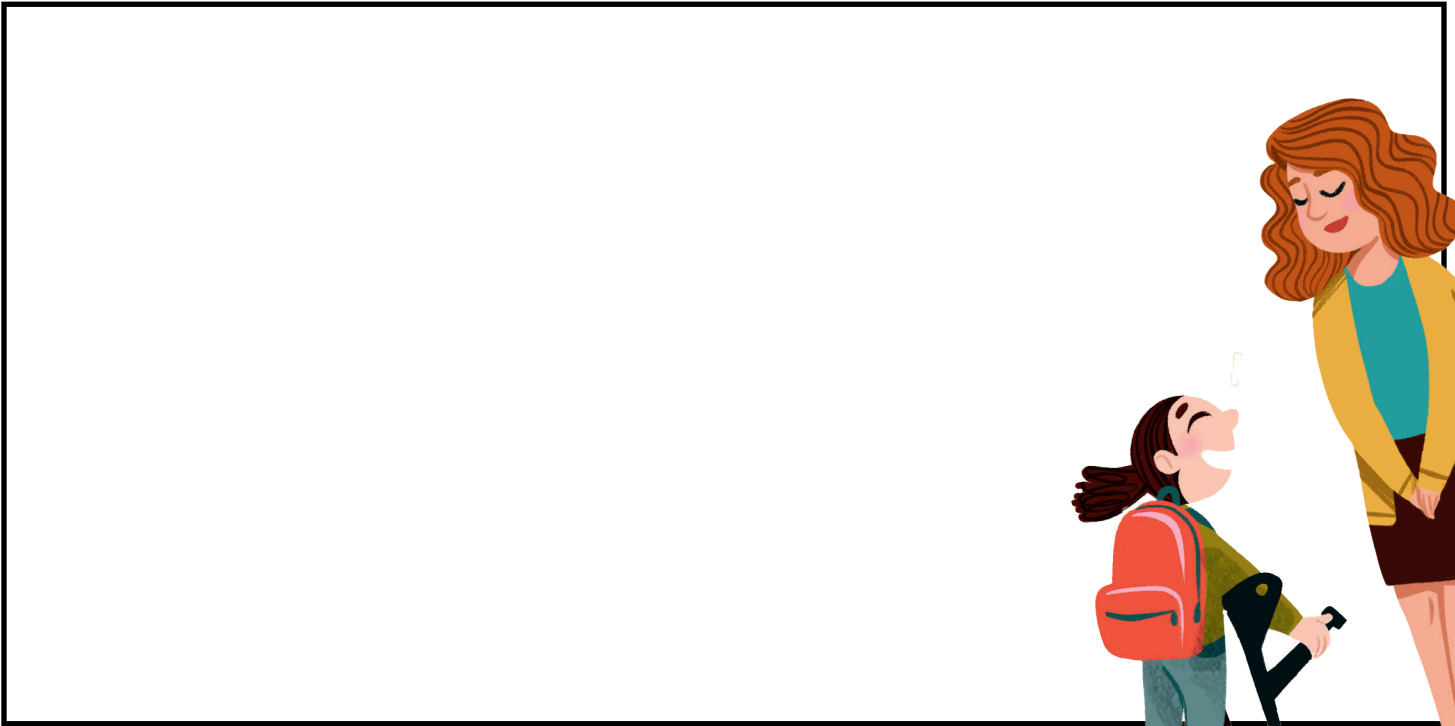

MY FAMILY AND ME

MY FRIENDS AND ME

MY TEACHER AND ME

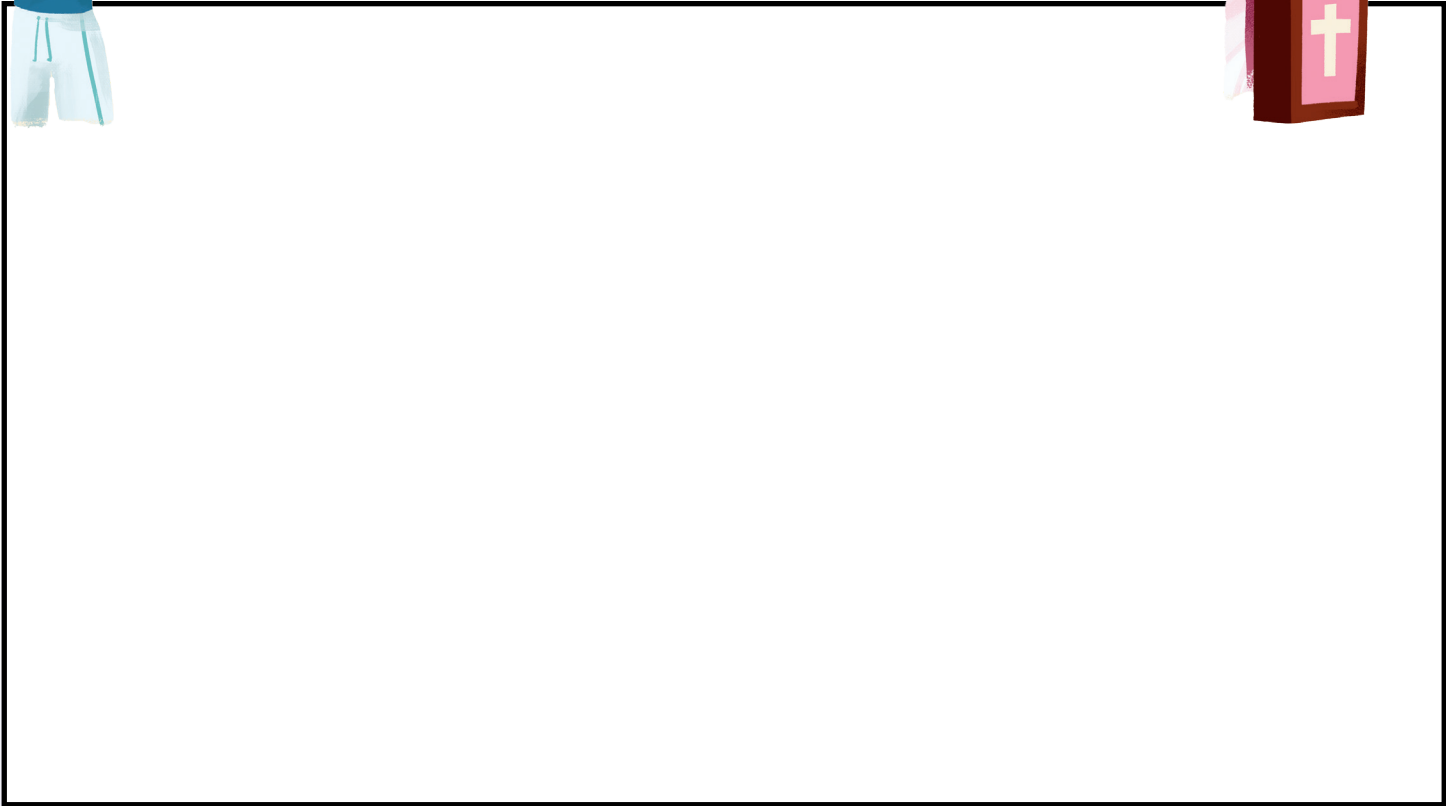

MY NEIGHBORS AND ME

Who else is in your community? Your coach?
Your barber? Your preacher?

MY _____ AND ME

After all, it's important to remember:

WE ALL MAKE UP ONE HUMAN RACE!
